

FELDA FRAGMENTS

Capt. Reeves went on a business trip to Tampa last Sunday.

Misses Julia Folghum, Elsie Sumner, Marion and Evelyn Holland, Marie Carr and Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Thomas were visitors at the home of the Taylors last Sunday.

Mr. W. W. Holland and Mr. Marvin Taylor worked on the road near LaBelle last week.

The orange hauling has stopped for a couple of weeks, on account of unsatisfactory prices.

Mr. Emory Taylor and Mrs. N. P. Byers while going to the school house Monday afternoon in Capt. Reeves' truck happened to a very serious accident. Mrs. Byers felt something warm and when she looked around there were flames reaching up higher than her head. She screamed and jumped out of the truck. The truck was stopped immediately and they both escaped without injuries. With a few exceptions practically everything about the truck was ruined.

Mr. Edward Townsend who was formerly staying at Mr. M. N. Taylor's is now residing at Mr. Hubert's near LaBelle.

Mr. L. C. Sumner received word Thursday of the death of his mother and we are all in deep sympathy with him.

Mrs. F. L. Taylor, Mrs. J. L. Taylor, Mrs. N. P. Byers, Miss Evelyn Overacker and Mr. Emory Taylor, enjoyed a nice fishing trip, last Thursday evening.

IN COUNTY JUDGE'S COURT, CHARLOTTE COUNTY, STATE OF FLORIDA.

The City of Punta Gorda a Municipal Corporation.

Something for Merchants to Think About

Name ten merchant princes who never advertised. No? Name nine, then. Six? Two? One? Why, what is the meaning of this? Your knowledge of history and current affairs is comprehensive; your memory is excellent. Why, then, can't you name the great leaders of commerce who built up their enterprises WITHOUT ADVERTISING? It's never been done, has it? On the other hand, great commercial successes, since the dawn of history, have been erected largely by advertising, of one sort or another. And as the means of advertising improved, the number and extent of business enterprises increased correspondingly. Cause and Effect.

But this has to do with big successes, you say? Wrong again. Read below.

Newspapers come first on the advertising budget of Fred P. Mann, Devils Lake, N. D., country merchant whose store does nearly a million dollar business a year. This much he told retail dealers who gathered at Boulder, Mont., last week for their annual convention.

He sends out grocery specials and personal letters.

Mr. Mann, who is known the country over for his achievements in building a million dollar store business in a small community, started in business with a $75 capital. Through a wholesale house he was given "time" on $1,600 stock.

A newspaper friend urged him to tell the public about what he had to sell through newspaper columns. He did this when other merchants were satisfied to carry only a card in the paper.

The first year Mr. Mann did a business of $23,000. He continued to use newspaper space judiciously and has kept at it ever since. Now the fixtures in his store alone are valued at $10,000.

Mr. Mann said that after taking the presidency of the North Dakota association he sent questionnaires from which he learned that 75 per cent of the merchants of that state did advertise and that 10 per cent advertised only because they wanted to help out their local papers.

At the same time, he said, the mail order houses were sending 72 cartons of catalogues into the state and it was reported by wholesale houses that 72 per cent of the merchants were insolvent. He said he took up a campaign to induce the country merchants to go on a cash basis and to advertise, and he has since succeeded in bringing 200 of them around to his system.

Mr. Merchant, you don't have to do business in Dakota nor belong to Mr. Mann's association to do business under his system.

Start now. Right here in your own town. TODAY.
